SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the person, and by an probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
- 2. As directed by the Court, if during the period of supervised release the supervising probation officer determines the defendant is in need of placement in a Residential Re-Entry Center (RRC), the defendant shall voluntarily report to such a facility as directed by the supervising probation officer, cooperate with all rules and regulations of the facility, participate in all recommended programming, and not withdraw from the facility without prior permission of the supervising probation officer. The Court retains and exercises ultimate responsibility in this delegation of authority to the probation officer. See United States v. Kent, 209 F.3d 1073 (8th Cir. 2000).
- 3. The defendant shall participate in psychological/psychiatric counseling and/or a sex offender program, which may include inpatient treatment as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements and conditions of such program, including submission to risk assessment evaluations and physiological testing, such as polygraphs, and Abel testing, and shall take all prescribed medication.
- 4. The defendant shall grant a limited waiver of his right of confidentiality in any records of mental health treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the treatment provider to provide information to the probation officer to monitor the defendant's progress.
- 5. The probation officer shall disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider.
- 6. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. The probation officer will provide the state officials with any and all information required by the state sex offender registration agency and may direct the defendant to report to that agency personally for additional processing, such as photographing and fingerprinting.
- 7. The defendant shall not possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, computer images, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct" as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2) and 2256(8).
- 8. The defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18 except: (1) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor, and (2) on the condition that the defendant notifies said parent or legal guardian of his conviction of the instant offense. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., with whom the defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usually commercial services.
- 9. The defendant shall not be allowed to reside in the home, residence, or be in the company of any child under the age of 18; or date or socialize with anybody who has children under the age of 18, without the prior approval of the United States Probation Office.
- 10. The defendant will not reside or loiter within 100 feet of schoolyards, playgrounds, arcades or other places, establishments and areas primarily frequented by children under the age of eighteen.
- 11. The defendant may not engage in any paid occupation or volunteer service which exposes him either directly or indirectly to minors, unless approved in advance by the Unites States Probation Office.
- 12. The defendant shall allow the United States Probation Officer, at any reasonable time, to make periodic unannounced examinations of his computer, hardware, and software, which may include the retrieval and copying of all data from the computer.
- 13. The defendant shall maintain a complete, current inventory of his computer access, including but not limited to any bills pertaining to computer access, telephone bills used for modem access, or other charges accrued in the use of a computer, and submit those documents whenever requested by the United States Probation Officer.
- 14. The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning computer-related restrictions that are imposed upon him, unless excused by the United States Probation Officer.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 15. The defendant shall not use or have installed any programs specifically and solely designed to encrypt data, files, folders, or volumes on any media. The defendant shall, upon demand, immediately provide the probation officer with any and all passwords required to access data compressed or encrypted for storage by any software.
- 16. The defendant shall not possess or use any computer or other device with access to any on-line computer service without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, gaming system, console or any other public or private computer network or other such device which would enable contact and/or the sharing of data with other individuals known and unknown to the defendant. The defendant shall not have access to a modern during his term of supervision without the prior approval of the United States Probation Officer.

Special Findings Justifying Special Conditions:

- a. The defendant may recidivate or violate conditions of supervision if he does not receive treatment.
- b. The defendant is an evaluated sex offender with a prurient interest in children.
- c. The defendant could become dangerous to children and the community if in possession of sexually explicit material and without significant treatment.
- d. Used a computer in commission of offense.
